

GRAND LAKE AREA HISTORICAL SOCIETY Committee Reports

Displays and Exhibits

Kathy Means and her many hard working volunteers develop displays and exhibits at the Kauffman House Museum. Last year's "Changes - 100 Years of Rocky's West Side" celebrated the Centennial of Rocky Mountain National Park.

Docents distributed a booklet for visitors highlighting the history of the west side; this booklet is now available on our website www.grandlakehistory.org. The Historical Society partnered with Cabela's, the Colorado Parks and Wildlife Department, and numerous local animal mounts collectors to set up a large wildlife exhibit, and partnered with RMNP and its rangers to display many historical Park artifacts. The entire exhibit was well attended, fascinating and enjoyable.

During the winter holidays, the House was festively decorated for several Open-Museum days, featuring treats and tours, in November and December. Kathy has added short "movies" to the touch pad and flat screen in the Museum's Gallery. These include the slide show originally made for the Kauffman House and narrated by Patience Kemp, National Park Service information for the 100th anniversary and a 1950 episode of "Howdy Doody".

12 volunteers came together to paint the Kauffman House Gallery in preparation for the next exhibit. Then, many volunteers and collectors worked to put together this year's wonderful special exhibit, "Dolls for Guys and Gals", which features about 400 items reflecting children's imaginative fun over the years - doll houses, countless amazing dolls and action figures of all kinds, lots of other toy items, things for visitors to play with and make paper dolls, and lots of history! It's beautiful, fun and fascinating.

Books and Merchandise

Malene Mortenson has served as the Chair of this committee, with Martha Boehner as her substitute when Malene is away. Books added to the Gift Shop include: Lee Whitely's book The Playground Trail: The National Park-to-Park Highway: To and Through the National Parks of the West in 1920, and Suzanne Silverthorn's postcard book Around Rocky Mountain National Park. We reprinted the booklet A Walking Tour of Historic Grand Lake, which sells for $5.00 and includes wonderful local historical photos. We continue to distribute the four-fold 50¢ "mini" Historic Walking Tour at locations around town. This summer, we have available a few cuttings taken from the Kauffman House geraniums which arrived from Kansas in 1905 and have been thriving since; they are for sale, potted and ready to go, for $25 at the Kauffman House Museum Gift Shop.

Cottage Camp

So very much has happened in the last year at the Cottage Camp site. The Smith Eslick Cottage Court was placed on its first-ever permanent foundation in summer, 2015, and authentic flooring added two accommodation units in Fall, 2015 to complete that project, funded in part by a grant from History Colorado – State Historical Fund, and additional funding from Grand County, the Town of Grand Lake, and private donors. The newly purchased second lot property, which doubled the size of the site, was cleaned of a great deal of scrub, nails and other debris by GLAHS volunteers in preparation for installation of a water tap and water lines at both portions of the site. Those installations were funded primarily by the Town of Grand Lake, the Grand Foundation, and Grand County.

Exhibits were planned for the site through an extensive series of Planning Committee meetings, many of which were attended by other interested community members whose great ideas are reflected in the final exhibit plan. Traub Design Associates of Kansas have completed a general, but comprehensive, interpretive narrative to guide exhibit design. The committee decided to go “all-in” and opt for creative and inclusive displays, for all ages and covering a wide range of pertinent topics including: the effects of the advent of automobiles on commerce, road development, and recreation; the unique “Rocky Mountain Rustic” architecture common to our area and the Cottage Court; the stories of early entrepreneurs like P.H. Smith and the Eslicks; the importance of water to the West, its conservation and use – the Cairns #3 Ditch which fronts the Cottage Camp site.

Thanks to a very generous donor, irrigation and sod were provided in front of the Cottage Court, and soon will be added to the second, adjacent lot. Then, a very generous donor provided seven beautiful spruce trees on that second lot, thus implementing part of the overall master plan for the site. We received property tax exemption for the second lot, and Lois and Dave Sauer donated a flag pole to be eventually installed. The Smith Eslick Cottage Court building is already on the Colorado State Register of Historic Properties, but the Colorado Historic Preservation Review Board approved our nomination of the Cottage Court to the National Register of Historic Places, and sent it to Washington, D.C. This nomination was written by lead author Jane Stotts, with Corinne Lively and others. Stay tuned.

The State Historical Fund has given us a grant for the complete restoration of the Cottage Court, to begin soon. Fundraising efforts continue as always. Plan to come to support the Cottage Camp at the Souper Stars Benefit, the Victorian Tea, the second annual GLAHS Chicken Dinner ... all listed in Upcoming Events. Your help is so much appreciated!

Cottage Camp Planning and Campaign Committees: Deb Bondi, Elin Capps, Jim Cervenka, Paul Gilbert, Paul Harrington, Dennis Humphries, Lesley Janusz, Lynne Ludwig, Kathy Means, Pat Raney, Patti Stahl, Jane Stotts

Building Committee

Building Co-Chairmen Paul Gilbert and Dave Sauer oversaw the complete exterior restoration of the Kauffman House Museum in summer and early fall of 2015. Mason Wes Bishop and contractor Dan Schneller repaired or replaced decayed logs, removed and numbered all the decorative saplings from the seams between logs, removed all the daub (sometimes called chink - it's the "cement" between logs), replaced it with authentic materials, and then put the decorative saplings back. Grand Design's Jim Peterson stained the entire exterior, and Brian Dornbush of Alan Carter Architects devised a maintenance plan for the coming years. This project was funded in part by a grant from History Colorado - the State Historical Fund, and the House looks terrific! Trim and window glazing is scheduled to be completed this summer.

Not all projects at the Kauffman House or the Cottage Court are large. There's the occasional bulb that needs replacing, or paint touch-up when an exhibit item is moved, and the like. There are also some building concerns that are a little more complex, and someone has to make the call to get hold of a plumber or other service person for repairs. Our two Building Committee Chairs are no longer able to continue their positions, and WE NEED BUILDING CHAIRMEN! If you are a bit handy around a house, please consider helping out. It's best if there are a couple of folks on hand for these sorts of chores, so two volunteers or more would be wonderful. We slightly less handy volunteers will assist whenever you ask us. You will receive absolutely zero pay, but will have the everlasting gratitude of the Grand Lake community and maybe, very possibly, many hugs. Let us know if you are a person we so very much need: 970/627-8324, glhistory@rkymtnhi.com.

Gardens

Lynne Ludwig, assisted by Tom Ludwig, has taken on the job of pampering the gardens around the Kauffman House. She weeds and manicures at least weekly, and has added lupine and other native plants; he is the resident weed whacker. It's a big job, caring for the flower beds in front of the Kauffman House veranda, the Pioneer Garden along Lake Avenue east and below the House, and the strip of plants along Lake Street directly across from the marina. It looks wonderful, so we owe Lynne and Tom huge thanks. All this was handled primarily by Lois and Dave Sauer last summer, before they moved back to Kansas. Lynne would love to get some help; contact our office, and we'll give you all the information you need. 970/627-8324, glhistory@rkymtnhi.com.

Website

The web master is Kathy Means. Kathy regularly adds photographs, historical information, complete records of past exhibits, recent emails, newsletters and more to the site. She has most recently been working with Firebird Design of Granby to develop a web site "photo gallery". Visitors to the site can also purchase books and donate to support GLAHS projects. The site has been very popular, with a best day record 219 visitors to the site, and over 52,000 folks using the site in the last ten years. Take a look! www.grandlakehistory.org

Collections and Accessions

Kathy Means serves as the Collections Manager; she has able assistance from Rudy Perez who donates a morning each week to accessioning items into the computer data base. There are still many items in our collection which need further research. If you are interested and want to help with learning more about the historic items in the Kauffman House or in our collections, please contact us.

During the last year, we have received and accessioned many more wonderful items into the collection. Many pieces of Victorian sheet music were donated by Jane Kemp. They are extraordinary, and came originally from Mary Lyons Cairns and Lola Gebhardt. Also donated by Jane Kemp were eleven books once owned by Patience Cairns when she taught school in Grand Lake. Ellsworth Mills III donated a copy of a book about his grandfather John Harrison Mills, Pioneer Painter, as well one of the prints showing a Grand Lake scene. We now have fascinating documents given by Spencer Richie from his family's lake home built in 1918, and a 1946-47 Juniper Club scrapbook from the Herman family, donated by Iris Wright.

Jane Tollett took usable portions of a vintage quilt found in the Henry house on the lake, and turned them into lovely pillows which can be displayed. We received lovely Victorian era clothing, and a riding outfit from the Stoddard and Margaret White family, which are truly treasures. Early women's and children's clothing donated by Karenann Manley is displayed in the guest rooms of the Kauffman House; an apron is displayed in the kitchen. Western style child's clothing, donated by Stan Metzger, is displayed in the "Mr. Brown's" guest room of the House. Two more donations of note received this year are aprons and kitchen potholders, donated by Theresa and Russ Nuzum, and vintage clothing and jewelry from Judy Forman.

Steve Batty donated a life preserver, boots, oilskin coat and other turn-of-the-century items which will be perfect for display at the Smith Eslick Cottage Court. Also most likely to be displayed at the Cottage court are a mirror thought to have belonged to the Eslick family, donated by Pat Raney, and an early Coleman gas lamp, donated by Kathy Kunc. Memorabilia of the McLaren family, early Park Rangers, from Martha Boehner were displayed in last year's RMNP special exhibit, and are important to our area's story. A pitcher or "ewer" and bowl for a washstand from the Rowe family are now displayed at the Kauffman House. More Rhone family memorabilia, and several items once used at the original Corner Cupboard were gratefully accepted into the collections. We received a handmade Raggedy Ann doll, donated by Karenann Manley, now on display in the "Dolls" exhibit, as are many of the various interesting dolls and other items from the Heckendorf family.

We added a Karen Vance print to the collection, as well as the book Ramblings of a Ranger, donated by Jim Liles. We gained valuable information with a donation of items from the old KaRose Resort, an album of photographs and other items from the Corner Cupboard in 1949 which was donated by Edward M. Green, a photograph album from when Della Seyl worked at the Grand Lake Lodge in the summer of 1946 donated by Gary Willett, historical booklets of local interest, donated by Donna Ready and Jim Cervenka, postcards of the McDonald's Ranch once located at Monarch, Colorado, and the stories of Charlie Everett's adventures in Grand Lake.

The Historical Society accepts donations which have historical significance to the Grand Lake area. We are able to help you preserve your family history by digitizing photos and records if you are willing to share them with the historical society and you can keep the originals.

Nominations to the Board

The three year terms of Deb Bondi, Kathy Means, Dave Sauer and Sharon King have been completed at this time. Deb and Kathy will continue as board members. After many years of invaluable service, Dave has moved to Kansas. Sharon must also leave the board, but will continue her work as Membership Chairperson. The Historical Society Board of Directors meets the second Wednesday of each month at 7:00 PM. It is the GLAHS Board that initiates and monitors all the activities of the Historical Society, and has a good number of merry moments doing so. We'd love for you to help with our essential and fascinating work, and join the GLAHS Board!

Education and Outreach

Steve Batty once again wrote the lead article in this year's GLAHS Spring Newsletter which was mailed to about 1650 residents and friends in May. We send monthly E-Blasts with news of historical interest and news of upcoming events. We have recently switched from our earlier delivery system to Constant Contact, which means we well could have lost some of you in this transition. If you are not receiving our monthly news flashes, please do send your e-mail address to us at glhistory@rkymtnhi.com, so we can add you to our list.

The Historical Society toured members of Colorado Preservation, Inc. through the Kauffman House last September. Grand Lake's Dave Lively is a member of the board of directors of this organization.

Deb Bondi fills the GLAHS kiosk panel on town park with updated information about Historical Society events. It's helpful for visitors to our town.

Bob and Kathy Means, Joe and Julie Cunningham, and Elin Capps participated in one day of the annual Watershed Week for all county 6th graders last September. Our group presented a brief series of "skits" about the history and use of Grand Lake's water. Watershed Week activities are organized by the Grand County Water Information Network, with the participation of many water interest groups and agencies. It's fun to do, but we would welcome more "actors"... folks who would like to help with the GLAHS effort. Give us a call! 970/627-8324, glhistory@rkymtnhi.com.

A geo-cache is set up at the Kauffman House (Shhh... can't tell you exactly where. That's the fun of it!) It receives many, many visitors, and is monitored by Joe and Julie Cunningham, who also placed a geo-cache at the Smith Eslick Cottage Court, and its location is a mystery as well!

Office

Wow! We have doubled the space of our modular office, 610 Center Drive. We have added much-needed room, in the space last rented by the GL Recreation District, and filled it with shelving to hold all our collection and fundraising storage. Well... it's still not quite completely organized yet, but it's coming along. We could certainly use more free-standing metal shelving, so if you should come across some, please let us know: 970/627-8324, glhistory@rkymtnhi.com.

Finance

Patti Stahl, Deb Bondi, and Frank Reardon form this committee, and receive crucial help from Diane LeDuc. During the past year, the committee has worked diligently to refine financial reporting using a new version of QuickBooks, to develop a general investment policy, to conduct the annual informal audit, and to prepare many varieties of reports as needed.

Special Events

Lois Sauer chaired this committee through the summer of 2015. The 2015 Buffalo Barbecue Parade featured Kathy Kunc's marvelous antique touring car, with charming "Victorian" passengers George and Romaine Wilcinski. History Day at the Kauffman House in 2015 was really interesting, as visitors chatted with National Park rangers and volunteers, and museum admission all day was only $1.00. The annual "thank you" dinner for GLAHS volunteers was held at the Kauffman House, and was great fun. The Kauffman House was open 1:00 pm - 4:00 for several special Town events during the off season: Thanksgiving weekend, November 27th and 28th; Winter holidays, December 26th and 27th; Winter Carnival, January 23rd; and Saturdays - February 13th, March 19th. Treats were served at all of these special occasions, and guests enjoyed their visits. The Kauffman House was also open 10:00 pm to Midnight on New Year's Eve, as we awaited the fireworks over the lake.

CALENDAR OF UPCOMING EVENTS

December 31st, Kauffman House Museum open 10:00 pm - Midnight as we await the fireworks over the lake. $5.00 per person, treats and tours included.

Membership

Sharon King has been our Membership Chairperson for years, and has worked diligently to make new and renewing members feel welcome. Sharon must leave our Board, but... thankfully... will continue as Membership Chairperson. She will continue to give renewing members her best attention, but will also focus on recruiting new members, making the community aware of all the GLAHS does, which is essential to keeping our Historical Society vibrant and inclusive. If you are not already a member, contact Sharon to learn the many ways you can support the GLAHS: 970/627-8102 or (the office) 970/627-8324.

We Were Saddened...

... by the deaths of longtime member Patricia “Patty” Smith, and friends of the Grand Lake Area Historical Society. We lost Nita Cole, who supported our work and shared her vibrant life story in several interviews with us, Adam Randall, the chef at Daven Haven, who many times patiently helped us with Victorian Tea food, and lovely Mari Current who added to the fun at our Historical Holiday Celebrations. Several local business people are now gone, and will be remembered: Judy Lorens from E.G.s, Tom Phillips who ran the marina below the Kauffman House, John “Sonny” Pacheco who donated or discounted his Sani-King services for us, Bob Shoemaker who owned Lone Eagle Lodge back in the day and was instrumental in bringing Fourth of July fireworks to town, and Dorothy Lockhart who owned Grand Lake’s Silvertips Pool Hall (later the Foghorn Bar/Grumpy’s) and Western Pottery before opening The Dorothy Shop in Granby.

Associations

The GLAHS holds memberships in the Grand Lake Chamber of Commerce, the Grand County Historical Association and Grand County Heritage Coalition, the American Alliance of Museums, the American Association for State and Local History, the History Colorado, and Colorado Preservation, Inc.

Volunteers

The Kauffman House Museum was visited by people from 47 states, and 31 countries during the last year! Volunteer docents at the Kauffman House are incredibly valuable people, the very reason our remarkable museum is open to the public. They welcome and enhance the history experience for each and every visitor. Docents at the Kauffman House this summer are a wonderful group: Patti Stahl, Melinda McKinney, Jim and Elin Capps, Malene Mortenson, Bill Elliott, Merrie Coolen, Ron Pace, Joel and Sue Rogers, Nancy Lavington, Patricia Wishart, Kathy and Bob Means, Frank Reardon, Rudy Perez, Deb Bondi, Gary Calder, Chuck and Judy Chladek, Sally Bertoli, and substitute docents Neal Cross, Muriel Johnson, Kathy Klutsch, Jim Cervenka, and Mary Jo Burton. We still need more docents for this summer... there should be two people working for each three hour, once-a-week shift, for a total of 28 remarkable, very much appreciated folks each week! We encourage you to contact us for more information: frankreardon@gmail.com, (cell) 301/980-9081.

Our Grand Lake Area Historical Society is a completely volunteer organization. Volunteers over the past year... folks working on special events, collections and exhibits, fundraising, planning committees, and board member work... logged over 5,000 hours! Bravo and THANK YOU to everyone who has helped.
