

Carolyn Hosmer Rhone

Carolyn Hosmer Rhone was born August 8, 1889 in New Boston, Michigan. Carolyn entered into rest on July 13, 1965.

Funeral services July 17 in the Grand Lake Community Church for Carolyn Rhone, 75, who passed away at her home (Talahogan) overlooking Grand Lake. Mrs. Rhone who had suffered a heart condition for a number of years, had made her home at Grand Lake since 1920 when she and her husband, Henry, came to Grand Lake to start their career in the resort business. Through the years that followed they hosted at their famed Corner Cupboard, many famous personalities. Her husband Henry Rhone passed away in 1955.

Carolyn's brilliant personality had many facets: writing, teaching, cooking, hostessing and her ambition and drive, coupled with keen intelligence and the urge to build, in whatever field, has left its mark on the community which she chose to call home all these years.

Hostess to Humanity, people of all races, colors and creeds from all corners of the earth have tasted her hospitality and returned to warm themselves again at her heart fire. K Easy it was for her to project her philosophy beyond the confines of the Village called home, beyond the borders of her native land to embrace the whole human race.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Judy Woods, Grand Lake; Mrs Janet Boulter, Moses Lake, Washington; a son, John Henry Rhone, Grand Lake; a brother, W. J. Hosmer; one granddaughter and two grandsons.

Caroline, Judy and Janet

Pallbearers were John Holzwarth, John Henry Rhone, John Jennings, Art Thompson, Ralph Bachman, Redwood Fisher, Fred Pacheco, Elmer Stephens, and Dr. James Fraser.

Burial at Grand Lake Community Cemetery.

Donations to the Grand Lake Community Presbyterian Church.