GRAND LAKE AREA HISTORICAL SOCIETY Committee Reports

SMITH ESLICK COTTAGE CAMP

There are two invaluable committees working with the Cottage Camp project. The Cottage Camp Planning Committee oversees the entire development of the Cottage Camp site, including master planning, design and exhibit development, and more. The committee members are Elin Capps, Jim Cervenka, Judy Forman, Paul Gilbert, Paul Harrington, Lynne Ludwig, Pat Raney with key support and involvement of Dennis Humphries, Humphries Poli Architects, and Don and Susan Traub of Traub Design, Inc. The group completed the Master Plan for the Cottage Camp, and collaborated with exhibit designers to produce plans for the displays at the site. Other accomplishments for the year include the purchase of the adjacent, second lot which doubles the size of the site and makes room for the development of a welcome center, gift shop, and community events. To all the folks who donated to purchase this important property, THANK YOU! We cleaned out the small cabin on that second property, which will be restored as the gift shop, but which we're now calling the "Bay Window Cottage", and will soon begin a structural assessment of the cottage, and the process for nomination to the registers of historic places/properties. A second and very interesting part of the project is the replication of a small portion of the historic Cairns #3

Ditch, a water distribution system put in place by entrepreneur James Cairns beginning in 1885. We are working with the Town of Grand Lake, as the portion of the historic ditch is on the Town right-of-way at the Cottage Camp location; plans include recycling water and lots of space to interpret the importance of and uses of water in our area and the greater West. We are hoping to soon begin restoration of the Smith Eslick Cottage Court, thought to be the oldest original motor court in the region and the centerpiece of the Cottage Camp, and are thrilled that the Court is finally on its first-ever proper foundation!

The Cottage Camp Campaign Committee is the group that generates, organizes, and works our essential and enjoyable fundraising events. The very hardworking members of that committee are Deb Bondi, Elin Capps, Jim Cervenka, Judy Forman, Lesley Janusz, Lynne Ludwig, Kathy Means, Lois Sauer, Patti Stahl, and Jane Stotts. Last year's events included another lovely Victorian Tea at the Historic Rapids Lodge, the first annual Souper Stars for the Cottage Camp with its delicious food, brilliant entertainment, live auction and fun. The annual Historic Holiday Celebration, with its old-timey music, delicious food and wonderful friends was held at the festively decorated Kauffman House after Christmas, and then the first annual Groundhog Gala at the GL Golf Course was a hoot at the end of January with games, yummy chilis and fun entertainment. The celebration of the Vintage Time Travelers Model Ts, camping at the Cottage Camp as they begin their re-enactment of the 1920 Park-to-Park trek is planned for August 24th. It isn't meant to be a fundraiser, but the committee has taken on the planning: chicken dinner for the public, adult and other beverages, campfire story tellers and music!

Board Actions

The GLAHS Board of Directors meets at 7:00 pm the second Wednesday of each month, generally at the GLAHS modular office, 610 Center Drive. All meetings are open to the public. The board of directors reviewed the Society's Memorials policy, updating it to refine electronic record keeping, and have begun a year-long review of the Society's Constitution and By-Laws, which very much need to be updated. Members will be apprised of necessary changes in Spring, 2016, and will be asked to approve changes to those policies at the 2016 annual meeting.

Displays and Exhibits

Kathy Means chairs this committee. Exhibits at the Kauffman House are now remaining in place for a year. We have different visitors at the house in the winter and summer and we felt that with all the work in preparing the exhibit it would be acceptable to have it remain in place. The school exhibit last year was well received and it was removed in April in readiness for the new Wildlife exhibit in the gallery. We continue to decorate the house for the holidays during the special events at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Our total exhibit for this year is a tribute to Rocky Mountain National Park and the 100th anniversary of the creation of the park. The main theme is “Changes” and a series of posters and a booklet highlight the changes that have happened in the park over the past 100 years. The main floor of the museum features people in the area who came before the park and had an effect on its development – the Indians, Trappers & Hunters, Business men and Homesteaders, Miners and the county surveyor Franklin Huntington and Fall River Road construction contractor Richard McQueary.

The upstairs of the house displays the different National Park Service uniforms worn over the years and features the McLaren family whose father and three sons contributed over 150 years of service to NPS and all four had worked in RMNP. We give special thanks to Cabela’s and the Colorado Parks and Wildlife office in Hot Sulphur Springs for the animals on display in the gallery. Al Simonds has also loaned several specimens from his private collection. Martha Boehner and the McLaren family have contributed many personal items and photographs as well as two deer mounts. The Denver Public Library loaned five original art works of Muriel Wolle depicting the mining ghost towns for display in the mining exhibit. The town of Grand Lake has contributed funds for printing the booklet of Changes for marketing the Centennial celebration and the GLAHS exhibit. Many volunteers have been involved in preparing this year’s exhibit.

Nominations to the Board

Sharon King and Deb Bondi acted as the nominating committee for this annual meeting’s elections. The three year terms of directors Paul Gilbert, Melinda McKinney, Elmer Lanzi, Malene Mortenson and Steve Batty have been completed at this time. Tim McNulty resigned from the board, but indicated he is still eager to help as needed.

Membership

Sharon King chairs this committee. She has added a Complimentary Membership to the existing Individual, Family, Business, Benefactor, Honorary and Life member categories. Complimentary memberships might be given by the board for special service, generally for one year with an end date, with or without special privileges, e.g. business cards displayed on the front door. Sharon has also made Heritage Coalition combined membership forms available at the Kauffman House Museum; these include four separate organizations all included in one membership. Sharon continues to recruit new members, an essential task to keep our Historical Society vibrant and inclusive. If you are not already a member, contact Sharon to learn the many ways you can support the GLAHS: 970/627-8102.

Education and Outreach

Steve Batty took on the task of organizing the eight-page GLAHS Spring Newsletter which was mailed to about 1600 residents and friends in May. Thanks to Chas McConnell and Elle Soles of McConnell Design and Printing for all they did to make this happen. We send monthly E-Blasts with news of historical interest and news of upcoming events. If you are not receiving them, please do send your e-mail address to us at glhistory@rkymtnhi.com, so we can add you to our list. The Historical Society would love to routinely add texting, Snapchat, Twitter and other such communications to our repertoire, but we need someone to take this on. If you know of a young techie who could help, perhaps to earn community service hours, let us know! 970-627-8324 or glhistory@rkymtnhi.com

What's New at the Grand Lake Area Historical Society

Our mission is to preserve, protect and promote the history of the Grand Lake area.

Why I have a passion for Grand Lake's history by Steve Batty

Grand Lake has always been my summer vacation home as it was my father's starting in 1913 and every year after that until he passed from medical school in 1938. After that, his son and grandsons, the Batts, have all summered out in the way of his summering every August. We both grew up on the south shore of the lake and most of the Grand Lake Area Historical Society's history.

The first time I was fishing and then he became a member of the Grand Lake Yacht Club he added sailing to his passions for the lake. In the other hand, only sailing when he was retired. Grand fishing for big trout and Lake. He, in a 19th order and started spending more of the summer in Grand Lake. I met Dorothy O'Hara of O'Hara and in the changed, the connection to a side of Lake that was important.

Dorothy's family has been summering in the lake since the middle of the 1900's and the family name was Bryant. Dorothy Bryant, the grandfather, built a cabin on the south shore of the lake. He also was one of the first (possibly member) of the G.L. Yacht Club. Dorothy Bryant married into the O'Hara family and the cabin still has the family. Dorothy had many of the stories and we did research to discover where the family had lived. She also knew that Dorothy's aunt Minnie Bryant was played by Marjorie O'Hara in the 1957 film "The Sign of the Cross".

The beautiful September meeting in 2004 Dorothy called and said she had an old photo album, which had a picture of my grandparents on it. The album belonged to Mrs. Bryant and had Grand Lake in the name. I had never seen it before. When I saw it, I was very happy. She had many of the photos and we did research to discover where the family had lived. She also knew that Dorothy's aunt Minnie Bryant was played by Marjorie O'Hara in the 1957 film "The Sign of the Cross".

I found my grandparents' names in Grand Lake in the late Adams family from Adams, Texas. Through my research in the Phillips County Cemetery Society I discovered that Jay and his brother Leo Adams had been living in Adams when the State of Oklahoma declared 1907 county. Jay Adams just happened to inherit some of the shoreline from Adams Falls, around the lake, just where my grandparents purchased their lake front home. As Jay Adams, the original owner, never visited Grand Lake, but his son, the first summer house on Grand Lake and was built around 1900. Also owned by Jay Adams was Mr. Adams and Adams Lake. Jay was a close friend of Elmer and Cragg, Mr. Cragg, was a close friend of Mr. Batts and Cragg, a great way around the shoreline. He started on the lake in the early 1900's and lived there until the 1950's. The historical Society has a 1913 history club meeting of Cragg Adams which was like to give up Grand Lake during the summer before Cragg Adams National Park was in existence. You should enjoy by and history Cragg's history presentation.

This past summer, 2016, as I visited the Mountain Museum Center after the second day or two

The Historical Society is a founding member of the Grand County Heritage Coalition, which will hold their August 5th meeting at the Kauffman House; Jim Cervenka is the GLAHS liaison to this important organization working to increase collaboration among and marketing for area historical organizations. They are planning a collaboration with the Vintage Time Travelers Model T Club to hold three Colorado Scenic By-Ways ribbon-cuttings along the Travelers Park-to-Park trek route Grand Lake, Estes Park, Fort Collins. Malene Mortenson is the GLAHS representative with Colorado Scenic By-Ways, which has recently been working to better interpret the three by-ways loop of Colorado River Headwaters, Cache LePoudre and Trail Ridge Road. There'll soon be lots more exciting information coming from this effort.

The Town is developing a new demolition policy, one which offers choices for owners of historical structures; at present, one needs only pay $5.00 to receive permission to tear down any Grand Lake structure. Town Planner Joe Biller and the Town Planning Commission are working on this; the GLAHS has offered suggestions, and will continue to participate in the implementation of this very important policy.

Bob and Kathy Means, with Elin Capps, participated in one day of the annual Watershed Week for all county 6th graders. Members of the Historical Society will once again present this brief series of skits about the history and use of Grand Lake's water for the upcoming September event organized by many water interest groups and agencies. It's fun, and we can always use more "actors"... folks who would like to participate. Give us a call! The team of the Means and Capps also presented a West Side History Workshop at Trail River Ranch in the fall, a Nature Conservancy sponsored event.

Colorado Preservation, Inc. will hold their September meeting in Grand Lake, and the GLAHS will host tours of our museum sites and more. Grand Lake's Dave Lively is a member of the board of directors of this organization.

The GLAHS donated books and other items to auctions being held by Colorado Preservation, Inc. and Race for the Cure, and donated food collected at the Historical Holiday Celebration to the Mountain Family Center.

Elin Capps, Lois Sauer and Deb Bondi have filled the GLAHS kiosk panel in town park with updated information about Historical Society events. It's helpful for visitors to our town.

Building Committee

Dave Sauer and Paul Gilbert chair this very busy committee. They and their helpers are charged with the maintenance of the Kauffman House and Cottage Camp and their grounds. In the past year alone they have handled several mysterious security alarms, have pruned and removed overgrown aspens at the House, have refinished picnic tables at the Cottage Camp, have several times dealt with plumbing issues, repainted a sign identifying a moraine cut, and have done a considerable amount of snow shoveling. Future projects include repainting a direction sign at the corner of Pitkin and Grand, installation of track lighting in the Kauffman House dining room, reconstruction of a portion of stairs and railing approaching the Kauffman House veranda. Thank you to the crew - Steve Batty, Jim Capps, Dale Baan, Rudy Perez, Sharon King, Fred Ernst, Bob Means, and Jim Cervenka. Thanks too to the crew for their efficient work on town clean-up day: Deb Bondi, Patti Stahl, Jim and Elin Capps, Jim Cervenka, and Interact Club members Jesse Sidell, Theo Loo, and Henry Hohytia.

Office

The GLAHS office, located at 610 Center Drive, is a constant hub of activity. All the important information about collections and GLAHS projects is recorded in files located there and some of our many volunteer "staff people", particularly Kathy Means, Sharon King, Patti Stahl, Rudy Perez, Deb Bondi, Jim Cervenka and Elin Capps, can always be found there. Thanks to a grant from the Grand Foundation, we were able to purchase a better, higher capacity computer, a color printer capable of printing larger sized pieces, and a portable bar scanner for "capturing" printed historical items and saving them into the digital collection. We are looking for folks who would volunteer some time to scan items; if you're interested, contact us at 970/627-8324 or glhistory@rkymtnhi.com.

Books and Merchandise

Malene Mortenson has chaired this committee, and will soon have the help of Lois Sauer. Items added to the Gift Shop during the past year include the hilarious Cowboy Troubadour: Poems and Stories by Richard McQueary; we thank Jane Kemp and Richard who donated copies of this book with all profits from sales to go to the GLAHS. Other new items are Mary Taylor Young's Rocky Mountain National Park: the First 100 Years, additional copies of the wonderful Island in the Rockies by Robert Black, Michael Geary's A Quick History of Grand Lake, Avis Gray's Images of America: Grand Lake, and the lovely My Kawuneeche featuring the paintings of Donna Lyons.

We continue to offer two versions of our Grand Lake Walking Tour, the larger bound version, and the 50-cent version sold in small displays throughout town. Plans are being made for new signage in Town Park, and will probably include a large map identifying historic sites, and based on the Walking Tour. Also planned for the future is a second walking tour, leaving from the Cottage Camp site and featuring the amazing rustic architecture found nearby.

RMNP Centennial

The GLAHS acted as sponsors for the Trappers Wild Game Culinary Affair held in July of 2014. We contributed pictures for many of the "Then and Now" photographic displays for the 2015 RMNP Centennial; not buildings. The Town of Grand Lake and the Grand Lake RMNP Centennial Committee donated monies to support marketing of the wonderful "Changes - 100 Years of Rocky's West Side" exhibit at the Kauffman House, and the RMNP Centennial endorsed Vintage Time Travelers Model T chicken dinner, campfire, storytelling and music event to be held August 24th, beginning at 5:30 pm, at the Cottage Camp site. Bravo to the Town for this remarkable and necessary support! And, of course, the biggest celebration of the Park's Centennial is to be found at the Kauffman House Museum through March, 2016. Great exhibit!

Collections and Accessions

Kathy Means chairs this committee. The Meteor Victrola and 68 records donated by Betty and Trent Corbin are now on display in the dining room of the Kauffman House. The Victrola dates to the late 1800s or early 1900s. It was part of the school exhibit last year and we played Christmas carols on it during the 2014-15 Holiday Open Houses.

The Packard Pump Organ on display in the parlor was donated by Aurel Burtis. It was manufactured in Indiana in the late 1800s. Other items donated by the Burtis family included an opera chair, ice skates, cookbooks, and kitchen tools from the 1930-40s. It has been interesting to research each item and learn about the early development of them. Some of the cookbooks and kitchen items were used in the Holiday baking display. Several donations to the museum collection have been photographs, letters and documents which we were able to scan and add to the files of personal history and activities of the early residents of the Grand Lake area. Martha Boehner brought in scrapbooks containing over 1000 photographs and other items which we were able to copy and make computer digital records for the museum and for the family and Rocky Mountain National Park. The families of Cora and William Lehman, Franklin Huntington, and Ray Gruesing have contributed additional information for our files.

Dorothy Kuster donated several linens to our textile collection. Karenann Manley donated a number of handmade dresses, aprons and women's clothing items. Clothing from the Huntington family is on display in the parlor during this year's exhibit. One child's dress won a blue ribbon at the 1917 Grand County Fair. Steve Batty was able to salvage many items from a cabin that was being demolished.

Many were typical of the early cottage furnishings and will be in use when the Cottage Court is furnished. Jane Kemp donated a number of household items to add to our collection. Jeanne & David Kafer donated games and books. Dave Lively donated a poster of the RMNP centennial. An early book of Denver Mountain Parks was donated by Jane Binford. Bob Scott donated many records, photographs and information about the Grand Lake Lodge. We are working to save them and use in future exhibits.

Items from an abandoned storage locker were donated to the Historical Society. These included the parts for a walking spinning wheel and yarn winder which we hope to restore and display. Also included were many chairs, books, quilts, a wall tapestry, Western clothing, photographs and documents which add to our historical information and display items. The Gateway Hotel and Western Riviera Motel have donated sheets to the museum for use in storing many items in our collection. This material has been used to bag individual items to keep them clean and protected. GLAHS has shared 40 photographs from our collection for the publication of the book The first 100 years of Rocky Mountain National Park as well as the cover photo of Mary Beth Lagerborg's new book and an article in Cowboy Magazine.

The Historical Society accepts donations which have historical significance to the Grand Lake area. We are able to help you preserve your family history by digitizing photos and records if you are willing to share them with the historical society and you can keep the originals.

There are many items in our collection which need further research. If you are interested and want to help with learning more about the historic items in the Kauffman House or in our collections, please contact us.

Finance

Patti Stahl, Dave Sauer, and Deb Bondi form this committee, and receive crucial help from Diane LeDuc. During the past year, the committee has worked diligently to refine financial reporting, making it more concise and complete: moving the budget to an accrual system, developing a draft general investment policy, consolidating insurance policies, and preparing many varieties of reports as needed. Treasurer Patti Stahl participated in a webinar sponsored by American Association for State and Local History which offered good budget information. GLAHS financial reports are available upon request.

Gardens

Lois and Dave Sauer are in charge of the Kauffman House gardens. Dave has added labels to the flowers in the House veranda gardens. Lois and Dave weeded and mulched, and planted perennials in the Pioneer Garden and along Lake Avenue, and daffodils in front of the Kauffman House. Volunteers willing to help weed and maintain the gardens are desperately needed!

Kauffman House Exterior Restoration

Dave Sauer and Paul Gilbert shepherd this project, which is scheduled to be completed in this summer with grant money from the Colorado State Historical Fund. Rotting base logs will be replaced, decorative saplings between the exterior logs must be removed, and chinking between logs will be replaced, and the entire structure must be re-stained. When all is completed, a maintenance plan will be in place for the future. This project is much more complicated as we must use a chinking formula similar to that used when the structure was built.

Grants

Grants received in the last year:

Town of Grand Lake, $3,500 towards a water tap at the Cottage Camp

Grand County Board of County Commissioners, $5,000 towards installation of water lines at the Cottage Camp

Grand Foundation, $950 for purchase of new office computer and printer

Town of Grand Lake and the Grand Lake RMNP Centennial Committee, $1,500 for the production and marketing of RMNP Centennial events

Web Site

The web master is Kathy Means. The website is up and running and we continue to add more information on the site. Plans are to add more information about the past exhibits and the collections we have, especially those that are no longer being displayed. The news and special events will be included on the site as well as pictures from the past events.

We Were Saddened...

... by the death of members and friends of the Grand Lake Area Historical Society. We lost dear members Warren Rempel, Carl Anderson and Robert "Bob" Walker, as well as good friends Don Drake and Jim Boyd. We also recently learned of the 2013 death of Donald Fowler, one of those who built the Gallery addition to the Kauffman House in 1991.

Special Events

This committee is chaired by Lois Sauer. The 2014 Buffalo Barbecue Parade featured a GLAHS float with Kathy Kunc and son Mike chauffeuring costumed characters in their vintage automobiles. If you'd like to participate in this summer's Barbecue Parade, give us a call 970/627-8324 or glhistory@rkymtnhi.com. It's fun! Youngsters welcome! History Day at the Kauffman House in 2014 was successful, and guests enjoyed chatting with Katie Gailey as teacher Grace Eslick, and with her students, Amanda Debevec, Cassie Leman and Mackenzie DePlata. Docents Melinda McKinney and Edie Strate were also in costume for the occasion. This summer's History Day at the Kauffman House will be 1:00 pm - 4, August 1st, with special admission of only $1.00 all day 11:00AM - 5. The Kauffman House Museum was open 1:00PM-4:00 for several special Town events during the off season: Thanksgiving weekend, November 29th and 30th; Christmas holidays, December 28th and 29th; New Year's Eve; Winter Carnival, February 1st; and the third Saturday of January, February, and March. Treats were served at each of these special events, and guests enjoyed their visits. Volunteers met at the Heckert Pavilion in Town Park for a lovely, somewhat rainy, appreciation picnic at the end of last year's summer season - good eats, great company!
